

My wife and I are against the FCC implementing any proposal to lessen the Ind. telephone privacy law. My wife has a lower back injury and since we registered for this service she does not have to answer the phone for unwanted calls. We used to get about (4) calls a day, with the privacy service we have received only (1) call since we registered. Thank You Tom & Paulette Smith